The planners at KBC have long recognised the essential character of Loddington. This amended planning document still describes the "...important open spaces and trees breaking up the built form". At the same time it affirms "... the overriding character remains the Historic Core", and further maintains "... the villages historic and rural character".

Yet in the Policies Map 16 it is proposed to remove the Local Green Space classification from two of the most important and historic tracts of land in the village - HV1027 and HV1028.

It is essential that these two areas are maintained as Green Space or the very essence of the 'historic and rural character of the village ' is lost. Thus making the Map of the plan inconsistent with its text.
