

The Booklet is little too long for some.

Some like me will read it over and over read between the lines.

Others will think its too much trouble, and go in recycling Bin.

Shame as it's then a costly waste of time.

When putting a proposal or magazine across, put it in. Small lay means terms

Don't Confuse people.

The changes are too fast. People especially the elderly get confused. Panic.

The way the Survey is worded has double meanings.

Question ①. was the correct wording and compassionate. got all attention.

Question ②. The is proposing. - Sound like Testing water. hasn't done it yet, but this is un true. as already has by, page 9. because on page 10. it States Figures may be updated. and States. Future Schemes.

Question 3.

Show: Government Funding cut's,
This will make the Scheme un Fair, and will be problem for Disabled on Benefit, low earners, and in future attack Pensions with a little Saving.

(4) is to confuse People as empty homes will not be recognized by low Income payers.

(5) again it's a cloak, as Vulnerable, Elderly low. Low Income, will not know how to respond,

(6) has double meanings.

as the Scheme Stands now, payment is paid Directly to Landlord. You or Private or housing association - changes may cause Rent arrears, complications, I have a complex disability, my Rent goes Directly to you. So I don't panic if am home bound some days, as mobility can be poor exemptions. this counts comes under Subsidies -

(7) again is confused wording.
